

Dear Friend,

We present to you this Shavuot gift in honor of the upcoming holiday of Shavuot – “The time of the giving of our Torah”. While this year, as of now, we may not hear the 10 Commandments together as a community in synagogue, we will still celebrate Shavuot at the same time on Friday, May 29. At 10:00am on Friday, everyone is invited to join from the comfort of your home to read the 10 Commandments. Looking forward to uniting together for “10 @ 10” - 10 Commandments at 10:00am.

Please enjoy this “Shavuot Kit” to enhance your Shavuot at-home experience. Included in this gift is:

1. “DIY Sinai” – A Shavuot guide that will give you direction and insight into the holiday, including:
 - The 10 Commandments - the central part of the holiday, to be read on Friday
 - The Yizkor service
 - Candle lighting, Kiddush & Holiday meal instructions
 - Dairy Shavuot recipes & more!
2. CKids Insert – Including a Family Shavuot board game, 10 Commandments Challenge, Story & more!
3. Challah – Be sure to enjoy this at your holiday meal ☺
4. Tea lights – for the special Mitzvah of lighting holiday candles (married women light two, daughters and single women light one). Blessings & directions can be found in the “DIY Sinai” booklet. Light candles on:
